

Open Training Guidelines and Policies of Nordic Myst Dog Training

These guidelines and policies are an effort to eliminate confusion and to set a foundation on what is expected of the participants during Agility Open Training and Obedience Open Training.

1. Your payment entitles you to equal floor time. Please observe common courtesies and respect the other participants regarding use of the floor for your activity. In general, be aware of those who are also engaged in training their dog and use common sense regarding your own training during this time. You are not allowed to monopolize the field such that others cannot use it in a normal manner.
2. Payment is $5.00 for current Nordic Myst students and current SNKC members.
Payment is $8.00 for everyone else.
3. Please respect the building and the use of the equipment in and outside of the building. Gross negligence in its use will result in your not being able to further participate in open training.
4. Please respect the verbal direction of those who host the building for your use. Failure to do so will result in your not being able to further participate in open training.
5. Please clean up after your dog and yourself both in and outside of the building.
6. You can only train the activity which has been advertised for that session (i.e. you cannot use agility equipment on obedience days). Training other than agility or obedience needs prior approval.
7. Open training time is for your use with your dog. It is not to be used for you to instruct other people. Friendly, common, training advice is allowed, but please do not make it into a training class.

If you have any further questions or comments, please direct them to Terry Brown. It is further understood by the participants that Terry Brown has final say on the guidelines and policies governing open training.

I wish you an enjoyable time while working with your dog and with others as you participate in this activity.
Thank you.....Sincerely, Terry Brown.
